

CONNECTION PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Empowering Educators and Public Sector Professionals Through Practical, Google-first Professional Learning

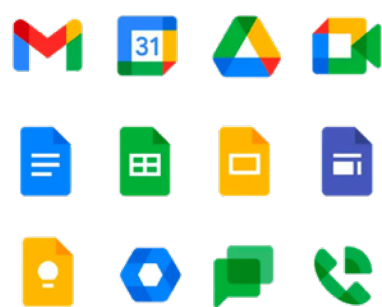

Connection Professional Learning equips educators and public sector professionals with practical, Google-first training that builds confidence and capability in Google Workspace and its built-in AI tools. Our approach emphasizes real-world application, productivity, and collaboration—while maintaining a strong focus on responsible, secure, and policy-aligned use.

Who We Support

- K-12 educators and instructional coaches
- Higher education faculty and staff
- School and district leadership teams
- State, local, and public sector employees
- Administrative and operational staff

Our professional learning is designed to meet participants where they are—whether in classrooms, offices, or hybrid environments—supporting both instructional and operational use of Google tools.

Google-focused Professional Learning

- Google Classroom
- Google Drive, Docs, Slides, Sheets, and Forms
- Google Meet, Calendar, and Keep
- Accessibility and inclusive learning tools
- Collaboration and workflow best practices

Sessions emphasize classroom-ready and job-ready workflows that participants can apply immediately.

Flexible Delivery Options

- Virtual, in person, or hybrid formats
- 1 hour targeted sessions
- 2-3 hour deep dive workshops
- Full-day institutes and academies
- Custom learning paths aligned to organizational goals

All offerings can be customized for instructional, leadership, or operational audiences.

Why Connection

- Certified, experienced professional learning specialists
- Deep understanding of education and public sector environments
- Practical, application focused training—not theory
- Scalable programs that build long-term capacity
- A trusted partner supporting digital transformation

We don't just deliver training—we help organizations build sustainable skills and confidence with Google tools.
