ActivPanel D-Series

Broadcast content instantly

Easily create and quickly share announcements, alerts, and celebrations across every display in your fleet with your preferred content management system (CMS), or Rise Vision*, a cloud-based signage software platform built into the panel.

Manage everything from one place

Centrally manage all screens across your school or district including ActivPanel D-Series with the device management system of your choice, or Radix VISO*, a web-based management console built into the panel.

Rise Vision is only available to K-12 education customers in the U.S.; paid licenses for Rise Vision and Radix VISO are required for use.*

Always on, always reliable

Get durable, 24/7 communications with this all-in-one digital signage solution. No media player required thanks to the embedded quad core processor with Android 13. Backed by Promethean's dependable product warranty and support.
